

Scientific conference

Contemporary issues in privacy protection in Polish and Lithuanian law

Toruń 17-18 June 2016

Program

First Day (Friday)

9.15 - 9.45 Registration

9.45 - 10.00 Welcoming speeches

Vice dean of the Faculty of Law of NCU, prof. Arkadiusz Lach

Dean of the Faculty of Law of VMU, assoc. prof. Tomas Berkmanas

I. General issues of privacy protection (10.00 -11.00)

Chair of the session - assoc. prof. Tomas Berkmanas

- PhD K. Dobrzeniecki “Postmodern times, new technologies and transformations within the mechanisms of control”
- Doctoral student K. Vinciūnas „The Privacy on Internet: Is Internet Really Exceptional?”
- Prof. E. Gruodytė. assoc. prof. S. Milčiuvienė “Depersonalization of court decisions: balancing public interest and right to privacy”

11.00 - 11.45 Exhibition and coffee break in the library

II. Privacy protection in administrative and tax law and procedure (11.45-12.45)

Chair of the session - prof. Arkadiusz Lach

- Doctoral student K. Astromskė “Issues and Recent Developments of Privacy Protection in Healthcare”
- Prof. Krzysztof Lasiński- Sulecki “Selected Aspects of Tax Secrecy in Poland”

III. Privacy protection in civil law and procedure (12.50- 14.00)

Chair of the session - prof. Ch. Szymanski

- PhD T. Veršinskas “Personal Data Protection and Assignment of Receivables in Factoring and Securitization Operations”
- LLME E. Ivanauskienė “The Right to Information about the Alleged Copyright Infringer and Infringement in Online Copyright Infringement Cases - Lithuanian perspective”
- PhD D. Gęszicka “The Right to Information about the Alleged Copyright Infringer and Infringement in online copyright infringement cases Polish perspective”

14.00 - 14.45 Lunch

IV. Privacy protection in employment law (14.45-15.45)

Chair of the session -

- Prof. Ch. Szymanski “Comparative perspectives on European protection of employee privacy in email and other electronic communications”
- PhD Marzena Szablowska – Juckiewicz “Disclosure of information by the employer about the remuneration of the employee - legal dilemmas”
- PhD J. Kapelańska – Pręgoska “Genetic information and employment - a real risk of discrimination?”

V. Privacy protection in criminal law and procedure (15.50-16.50)

Chair of the session - prof. Edita Gruodytė

Doctoral student S. Žižienė “Balancing Public Interest and Right to Privacy Censoring Prisoners Correspondence: Criteria for Proportionality Principle”
Prof. A. Adamski “Mass Surveillance and the Right to Privacy”
Prof. A. Lach “Personal Data Protection in Criminal Procedure”

17.00-18.00 Coffee break and poster session:

Kamil Bojarski, “Different models of implementation of data retention in terms of right to privacy”

PhD P. Čerka, Assoc. Prof. J. Grigienė „Whether Rebranding of Pharmaceutical Products Which Are Marked with Personal Name Infringes the Right of Privacy? “

LLME, A. Margevičiūtė, “Bullying and its Implications on the Right to Privacy of Learners During the Process of Compulsory Education”

PhD L. Meškys “Privacy Issues in Environmental Law”

Doctoral student A. Pasvenskienė „The Right to Freedom of Information in the Context of Academic Freedom“

Doctoral student N. Strikulyš “Insolvency Proceedings of Credit Institution in Lithuania and EU: Law and Practice”

PhD J. Spaičienė “Right to Privacy in Bankruptcy Cases”

19.00 - 22.00 Dinner

Saturday

10.00 Visit to the Old City for Lithuanian guests